

EastHUB's mission is to engage our diverse community to create a shared future for arts and culture on the Eastside. An inclusive future, built on effective partnerships, that mirrors the Eastside's multi-racial, ethnically diverse, multi-cultural richness. The grant is funded by the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation and awarded by ArtsFund.

The World Bank Group, which has a permanent office in Libreville, is among Gabon's main development partners. Other partners include the International Monetary Fund, the French Development Agency, the African Development Bank, BDEAC and the United Nations. Gabon joined the World Bank in 1963.

While oil production increased by 7.6%, due in part to previous investments to optimize production from mature fields, growth was affected by heavy rains and landslides that blocked part of the country's only railway for several weeks, affecting manganese and timber exports. The Gabonese economy thus grew by 2.4% in 2023, compared to 3.1% in 2022.

Gabon joined the World Bank in 1963. Since then, the Bank has provided support through the financing of more than 20 projects in a variety of sectors. Located in Central Africa, Gabon has significant natural resources. With a maritime facade on the Atlantic Ocean, it is bordered by Cameroon, Equatorial Guinea and the Republic of Congo.

These organizations provide essential capital to Washington's cultural organizations and investing in a stronger, more inclusive, and thriving arts and cultural sector. Give today to support EastHUB's efforts to create shared spaces, shared resources and shared services.

Despite its vast area,mainly forested,Gabon has only 2.3 million inhabitantsin 2023. Gabon's level of urbanization is one of the highest in Africa,with more than 80 % of its population resides in urban areas. The two main cities,Libreville and Port-Gentil are home to nearly 59 % of inhabitants.
