It is important to conduct the energy sector's green transition, but also tackle the security of supply, he stressed.

The main question I'm looking to answer is whether it is possible for an inverter and battery on a single phase to offset usage on all 3 phases - beyond the Powerwall 3, which apparently does this. If the answer is no, I may well stick to using just a single phase, including the future ASHP and EV charger, but it does seem a wasted opportunity.

I wonder if the 3 phase battery that will be there later, is related to new micro inverters Enphase IQ8P-3P and IQ8H-3P These inverters are 3 phase. For the moment these are only there for a 208 Volt system (US voltages) So not useful in Europe yet. But things like Auto phase balancing should work the same in the US as in Europe.
