Is SATEC a private company?

With headquarters in Jerusalem, Israel and subsidiaries in Union, New Jersey and in PRC, SATEC is a privately owned company. SATEC was first founded in 1987 as a technological business incubator by Prof. Herman Branover.

How did SATEC get started?

Initial funding came from the mining industry, which had vested interest in developing novel hydrometallurgical solutions [buzzword] for the processing and smelting of gold out of ores of low gold content. Two years after, SATEC was already in its current location in Har Hotzvim, Jerusalem's Hi-tech industrial park.

What does a SATEC engineer do?

SATEC engineers specialize in a variety of fields and applications. These range from signal processing through standard testing for accuracy and durability, along with implementation of different communication protocols. Over the years, a variety of applications have been investigated, developed, and implemented in the SATEC labs.
